

L A N C A S T E R R O S E C L U B

Buckeye District of the American Rose Society

ROSE SHOW

SEPTEMBER 13, 2008

1:30PM UNTIL 4:30PM

FREE ADMISSION

✧ See Ohio's Best Roses ✧

Award winning rose growers and exhibitors from across Ohio and adjoining states will be competing for statewide honors for the best roses in Ohio in the fall of 2008. Hundreds of roses will be on display. "Ask the experts" about growing and showing roses

FAIRFIELD COUNTY'S LIBERTY CENTER

955 Liberty Drive

The Fairfield County Liberty Center is the location for this year's statewide rose competition.

The Liberty Center is west of Lancaster on Fair Avenue just west of Ety Road. Easy access to Rt 33 (business) at Meijer's. The center has plenty of parking space and the show layout is designed to accommodate mobility devices. The public display is scheduled for 1:30PM and will end at 4:30PM. NO ADMISSION FEE. Bus groups from churches and assisted living centers are welcome. We invite you to smell the roses at this important free event. Call 740-215-6348

National Winner

Tim Hartranft of Lancaster won the American Rose Society's coveted "Queen" of hybrid tea roses in 2007. He will be competing for "Queen" of the Buckeye District this weekend

Over 100 Classes

- Arrangement classes*
- Specimen classes*
- Grandifloras*
- Hybrid Teas*
- Minifloras*
- Shrubs*
- Minis*
- Climbers*
- Floribunda*
- Old Garden*
- Hundreds to see*

Up close

You will be weaving in and out of tables filled with roses and see beautiful arrangements up close. "Something to remember all winter"

SEPTEMBER 13, 2008 1:30PM UNTIL 4:30PM FREE ADMISSION

ROSE SHOW

Buckeye District of the American Rose Society

L A N C A S T E R R O S E C L U B

LANCASTER ROSE CLUB

1221 Granville Pike
Lancaster, OH 43130

